Br Thomas' remains came back to spend one more night "at home" in the monastery...

The CSsR confreres carried him into the Church...

He was carried into the side altar of St Gerard Majella, Patron of the Brothers...

The next morning the family members brought him into the main central aisle...

Bishop Patrick Lynch ssc prayed the final prayers of commendation...

After the cemetery the blood family (Lavery) the religious family (CSsR) the Little Sisters of the Poor and many other friends and parishioners gathered in the monastery for some light refreshments...

Vivat in aeternum Br Thomas!
